Summary:

On January 7, 2012, at approximately 6:11 PM, Officers of the Porterville Police Department responded to the 1000 block of W. Henderson Avenue for a report of a motorist passed out at the wheel. Upon officers' arrival 27 year old Jason Potts was contacted sleeping in the driver's seat of a vehicle. Potts was evaluated and determined to be actively under the influence of narcotics. Potts was subsequently arrested, and during the inventory search of his vehicle, several controlled narcotics were located, none of which he had a prescription for. Potts was booked into the custody of the Tulare County Jail on charges of possession of a controlled substance and suspicion of driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs. This case remains under investigation.
